

Camp ROC Star Policies

The following policies must be read, understood, and agreed to, by signing the Release Form available on the website, in order for your child to attend camp.

CAMPER CODE OF CONDUCT Our Code of Conduct is not meant to keep you from having fun, when everyone works together and is respectful of each other and the equipment, we all have a great time. We are positive by the time you leave the stage after your Friday evening performance your parents, friends, teachers, and the camp Director will be proud of you... and most of all, you are going to be proud of yourself!

1. Absolutely NO smoking, drugs, or alcohol on campus.
2. No vulgar or obscene language or curse words allowed, and no vulgar or obscene words, phrases, or symbols allowed on any article of clothing or any other article brought to Camp ROC Star.
3. Any type of verbal abuse, fighting, pushing, stealing (no "finders' keepers"), or use of other students' or faculty members' musical equipment or personal property without prior permission will result in dismissal.
4. Being disrespectful of adults and/or staff will result in dismissal.
5. If you made a request to be in a band with specific campers prior to registration and a mistake has been made, talk to your camp Director as soon as possible on Monday, preferably before camp begins. Any class or band changes MUST BE requested no later than the end of the day on Monday each week.
6. No damage to campus property or you will be responsible for repair, replacement, or cleaning costs.
7. No cell phone use allowed at camp or during concerts unless there is an emergency.
8. Absolutely NO skateboarding on campus (due to our insurance agreements with the campuses we rent, we cannot allow students to skateboard).
9. Campers are responsible for their own equipment and possessions (drumsticks, guitars, gig bags, cords, textbooks, lunchboxes, clothing, etc.). Make sure when you leave an area you have all of your things with you.
10. Campers must sign in and out at the Registration desk each morning. Camp Director must be notified if you are leaving early, going to be absent, or are being picked up by anyone other than a parent or carpool driver.

Camp ROC Star reserves the right to expel a student without refund for any behavior that is detrimental to the running of the program, or if camper mistreats fellow campers, staff, or the facility.

CANCELLATION / REFUND POLICY

All cancellation requests must be received in writing ONE WEEK prior to the start of camp. Camp ROC Star will retain a $100 cancellation fee and will refund any remaining balance. After first day of camp, tuition and fees are NON-REFUNDABLE. If your child becomes ill or has an accident within one week prior to your camp start date, inhibiting the child from attending camp, you may cancel, but Camp ROC Star will retain a $100 cancellation fee OR you may opt to receive a full tuition paid credit for the following camp season. A SIGNED NOTE FROM YOUR PHYSICIAN STATING THAT THE CAMPER IS UNABLE TO ATTEND MUST BE PROVIDED IN ORDER FOR THIS REFUND/CREDIT OPTION TO BE CONSIDERED. If a camper withdraws from camp because of (1) homesickness; (2) refusal to participate in the normal activities of the camp; (3) evidence that some emotional or physical problem which predates their arrival at camp results in the lack of adjustment to camp and/or adversely effects the health and well being of other campers, there will be NO REFUND. If a camper is requested by the Camp Director to leave camp because of violation of Camper Code of Conduct or because of personal conduct which interferes with the health/welfare of him/herself or others, then no refund will be made.

PHOTO, VIDEO, & AUDIO RELEASE

Camp ROC Star requests permission for the publication of photos, videos, and/or audio recordings of your child. Camper photos may be selected for use in display ads, on promotional materials, in our newsletter, or on the Camp ROC Star website. Video footage may be posted on the Camp ROC Star website. Audio recordings may be selected for use on the Camp ROC Star website. Campers who write original compositions will retain ownership of their songs. Camper names will not be disclosed or published.

TUITION POLICY

All accounts must be paid in full ONE WEEK prior to start of camp. To make a payment please send a check (payable to Camp ROC Star). Send payments to: Camp ROC Star, 55 Jewelberry Drive, Webster, NY 14580.